

WEEK ASSIGNMENT – Submission 2.2.4

Vivien Decker - The story of the 3 bears

THE IDEA

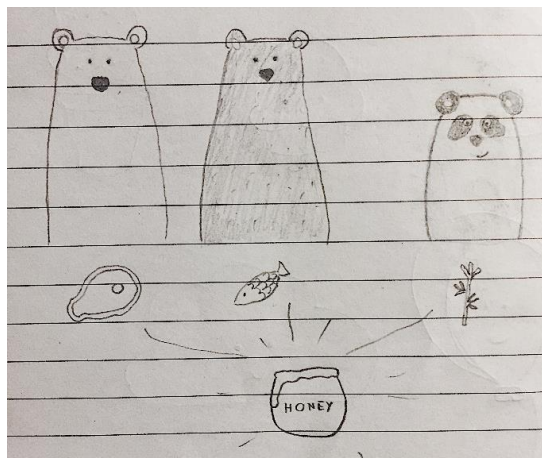

We have three main characters, all of them are bears but from different species. A Grizzly (called Griz), an Ice-bear (called Ice) and - our hero - a Panda (called Panda).

Griz and Ice are good fellas, they do everything together, having fun, laughing, playing, eating.

One day the lonely little Panda saw them having lunch together. He gathers all his braveness and decide to join them as he doesn't want to be alone anymore. He even brings his own lunch to eat together with the two friends. When our hero arrives nervously, the others look up on him and see his lunch in his hands, that is a bunch of Bamboo. They begin to laugh loudly.

At first Panda doesn't understand the situation but then he realizes that the other two are meat lovers that Ice is eating a steak and Griz is having a fish. Our hero walks away very sadly.

Griz look back above his shoulder and realizes how rude they were to Panda. In the next scene we can see Panda is sitting at home sadly when the two friend arrives with a big jar of honey and smiling. In the end they all eating from the same jar, having fun and smiling ☺

THE MESSAGE

Never be rude to others even if they are different from you!

Everybody has something in common you only need to find what it is!

GENRE/MOOD

Cute, heart-warming, educational, instructive

STYLE TILE

Inspiration (style of Liza Vertudaches)

CONTOUR LINE:

Mostly no lines or very thin hand-drawn feeling lines just to define some elements that are emphasizing the parts of the characters personality.

CHARACTERS/BACKGROUND RELATIONSHIP:

The whole scenery exists of few elements and lack of details. 3D effect only by in/decreasing sizes.

All the characters are having almost the same shape - as they are all bears - their color and little details will differentiate them. The background is going to have light pastel shade.

SPECIFIC CHARACTERISTICS IN THE STYLE:

The characters and the whole atmosphere are like they were illustrations in a story-book written for very little children. No harsh colors, only calm pastels and cute, simple characters.

TYPOGRAPHY:

– very light weight, simple shapes, easy to read for children as well.

YU Gothic UI Light

COLOURS:

The most elements have only one solid color-filling. Mainly pastels and watercolors.
